Jeff Davis Plans Annual Convention Of Negro Leaders

PRENTISS, Oct. 15.—The colored people of Prentiss and Jefferson Davis county will have as their guests some of the most outstanding women of their group during the coming week at the annual convention of the state federation of clubs.

The president of the organization who is completing her administration of four years is the wife of J. E. Johnson, principal of the Prentiss Normal and Industrial Institute. She has made the following announcement of the meeting through the local press:

"The Mississippi Federation of Colored Women's clubs will convene at the Prentiss Institute October 20-21 in its 30th annual session. The theme of the meeting will be: 'Building For Service.' The convention will again memorialize the people of the state through the governor and legislature in the interest of a home or school for negro delinquent and incorrigible youth."

The guest speakers will be Mrs. Lillian P. Rogers, president, Mississippi Association of Colored Teachers; Mrs. L. W. Alford (white) McComb City, chairman, State Council of Association of Southern Women, Friday afternoon, October 21, and Mrs. R. R. Moton, president, National Association of Colored Women, Tuskegee, Ala., Friday night."

Mrs. Moton Calls A Board Meeting

On Saturday, Oct. 15, at the home of the executive secretary, Mrs. Sallie W. Stewart, 709 Lincoln avenue, Evansville, Ind., the administrative board of the National Association of Colored Women met. The president, Mrs. Jennie B. Moton, presided. Eleven of the fifteen members of the board were present, namely Mesdames Jennie B. Moton, Mary F. Waring, Sallie W. Stewart, Mary McLeod Bethune, Ella P. Stewart, Ada Belle DeLoach, Christine Smith, S. Joe Brown, Lethia Fleming and Misses Arsanina Williams and Ann Gillam.

It was ascertained at this meeting that the balance due on the national headquarters building at 1114 "O" street, Washington, D. C., was around $10,000 and the executive secretary was authorized by the board to launch a special drive for this amount so that the entire indebtedness might be wiped out at the time of the biennial meeting of the association in Boston, Mass., in
